Born in 1984, Anne Horel was weaned on television, video games, and the birth of the Internet. She is marked with the seal of channel-surfing culture, symptomatic of the generation that came of age in the apocalyptic wake of the Y2K bug scare. A Graduate with Honors of the National Superior Art School of Paris Cergy in 2011, she was also selected the same year for the Salon de Montrouge.

She did segments on the French TV show L'Œil de Links on Canal + about Web 2.0 culture and hosted a show on Radiomarais, Oh Browser!, about the People of the Internet.

In 2017 she reached 230k Followers on Vine before it shut down.

She joined Partizan as a Director in 2015, where she makes Music Videos, Documentaries, Animations, and Branded Content for Social Media.

She has worked with companies such as MTV, Disney (Maker), Ubisoft, Twitter, Guerlain, Red Bull, Martini...

She is a featured Artist on Giphy where her GIFs have over 700 Million views.

In 2017, she is one of the Audi Talents Art Program Laureate. Her project was exposed in June 2018 at Le Palais de Tokyo in Paris and La Friche Belle de Mai - Marseille - in September 2018.

Her work was shown in La Gaîté Lyrique, The EYE Museum, Galerie W, Le Bel Ordinaire, The Mapping Festival (...), but her favorite place to broadcast her creations is on Social Media, especially Instagram where she makes AR Filters since January 2020, but she is also an official Lens Creator on Snapchat.
